

2010

Pendleton Heights High School

To Store Manager / Owner:

On Saturday, February 13, 2010, the 5th Annual Madison County Jazz Festival will take place. This event involves students at both the middle and high school levels. The festival is comprised of bands throughout Madison County. Along with the festival there will be a concert that will feature an Honor Jazz Band (students are nominated to participate), and our very own Madison County Area Directors Band with Guest Artist, Bobby Shew, an internationally known jazz trumpet soloist and educator. The festival will take place Pendleton Heights High School. The main concert will begin at 8:00 pm.

We are currently looking to area businesses for help in funding this event. We are offering a great opportunity for you to advertise in the festival programs that will be distributed at the festival. We have several advertising options available to you and your business. Please take advantage of this opportunity to show your support in our community and become a part of this unique annual event.
