CFAR Insurance via Travel Insured

NOTE

When filling out the form to purchase insurance, you will put February 19th, 2026 for the final payment date

Music Travel Consultants is NOT the seller of insurance, we are the conduit providing every traveler the opportunity to purchase through Travel Insured should you decide to do so!

CFAR(Cancel for Any Reason) Insurance is available to purchase through a link on your traveler dashboard. CFAR Insurance would enable you to file a claim should you have to cancel for the trip for a 75% reimbursement of whatever the non-refundable fees are at the time of cancellation. For example, if you cancel from the trip after January 11th, 2026, since all funds are non-refundable at that time, CFAR insurance would make you eligible for a 75% reimbursement from Travel Insured. CFAR Insurance must be purchased within 14 days of your first trip deposit!

FAQs

Q: How will large instrument transportation work?

A: Once we have a clear picture of the traveler list and instrumentation, we will work to determine what the best courses of action are going to be regarding equipment and large instruments (tubas and drumline specifically). This could be a combination of checked instruments, shipping equipment, borrowed instruments, carry-ons for smaller instruments, etc.

Q: Can I book a one-way flight to arrive in Ireland earlier or depart after the group?

A: The only deviation possible via the group booking is to do your own air booking completely. We are unable to process one-way bookings within the group air contracts. If you choose to make use of the group air, there is no discount available for not returning with the group if you are making other plans on the back end of the trip. Airlines discourage one-way international travel by pricing one-way fares higher than you would imagine.
